The Ministry of Prayer

"Call unto Me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things which thou knowest not" (Jer. 33:3).

There's a holy, high vocation
  Needing workers everywhere;
'Tis the highest form of service,
  'Tis the ministry of prayer.

No one need stand idly longing
  For a place in which to share
Active service for the Master,
  There is always room in prayer.

In these days of tribulation,
  Wickedness pervades the air,
And the battles we engage in
  Must be won through fervent prayer.

There's no weapon half so mighty
  As the intercessors bear;
Nor a broader field of service
  Than the ministry of prayer.

Do you long to see the millions,
  Who are perishing today,
Snatched as brands plucked from the burning?
  Do you long, yet seldom pray?

Are you longing for revivals
In the good old-fashioned way?
We must use old-fashioned methods—
Which have always been to pray.

Is the worldliness appalling
That within your church is seen?
Are you grieved, yet, at the Throne, ne'er
For the weak ones intervene?

Do you long to meet the Saviour
And your loved ones in the air?
You may hasten Christ's returning
By effectual, fervent prayer.

Join us in the plea that Jesus
Quickly will His bride prepare;
May His coming find us faithful
In the ministry of prayer.

Come and join the intercessors!
Laurels, then, some day, you'll wear;
For there is no higher service
Than the ministry of prayer.
